

General description

The Hotel CASTELLO is the ideal choice for the visitor of the city of Heraklion. It was designed so as to satisfy the highest demands of its select clientele, professional as well as recreational. It is open throughout the year and its convenient location offers easy access from and to the airport or the port, being at the same time very near to the commercial centre of the city

Reception and the Lobby areas

Classy decoration and liveliness are characteristic of the hotel's reception area.

Elements from the past are coupled in a unique way with modern ideas and the pallet of colours unfolds promises and creates the sense of staying in a very familiar environment.

The elegant, comfortable couches in the lobby and the charming architecture are the ideal setting for professional and private meetings.

Open spaces, multiple optical exits, a friendly atmosphere and the impeccable service compose the perfect background, that is rounded off with the very carefully chosen lighting, that at times is diffused creating a relaxing ambience and at times highlights objects and spots

Restaurants and Bars

Special emphasis was given to the wine restaurant CANDIA VECCHIA in the atrium of the hotel, as an ideal place for a business meal, a formal dinner or even an easy-going meeting with friends.

The atmospheric ambience conveys a sense of hospitality and comfort that soothes a hard day's stress, while the warm chromatic units add a feeling of order and variety that is relaxing as well as invigorating at the same time ...

The fascinating view to the sea, the old city and the Venetian Walls that embrace it, give value to your private but also your formal professional meetings ...

Our Chef's gastronomic inspirations with smells and flavours from Hellas and from all over the world impress and offer something for all preferences, whereas our well-chosen wine-list will satisfy even the most demanding palates.

In the stylish and well-informed Café – Bar our guests can enjoy a variety of exquisite hot and cold beverages and drinks with light snacks.

Conferences and Receptions

The elegant conference halls of the hotel Castello are completely equipped with audiovisual systems and all the necessary facilities. They can host conferences, seminars, samplings and educational presentations and offer a great choice for business meals or dinners. We have already hosted many educational, social and cultural events with great success.

Our experience in the organisation of receptions renders our hotel the ideal choice for high standard events that are intended to gain the impressions with their quality and their discreet luxury ...

With us, none of your wishes is impossible.
